Leftovers were victorious in achieving their first SADA City Cup. Leftovers entered the city playoffs in the third place A Division spot. In the first round Leftovers went up against the second Place B Division team Triple Threat and they were no threat to Leftovers and they moved into the second round. In the second round Leftovers went up against third place C Division team F-Bombs and Leftovers left the F-Bombs in the dust and moved right into the semi-finals. In the semi-finals round Leftovers went up against the first place B Division team 5 O'Clock Somewhere and they were successful to move onto the finals against the first place A Division team Karnage. Throughout the season Karnage had dominated A Division and the sailed through the playoff brackets against Good Stuff, We'Re Bad and Poison Darts but, in the end Leftovers prevailed and won the City Cup with Jake Koshinski taking out a double twelve.
