Bad Boys took the championship once again. They placed first in A division again this season. Since we only had 15 teams everyone automatically played on Sunday so, everyone got a little practice in the Luck of the draw on Saturday. On Sunday morning Bad Boys pulled the 3rd place A division rivals New World Order. New World Order put up a tough fight but in the end Bad Boys came out with the victory moving them into the second round. In the second round Bad Boys drew another team that is familiar with the playoffs 2nd place C Division Got Wired. Both teams played very well but Bad Boys came out the winners moving them onto the semifinal round. In the semifinal round Bad Boys played against a team that has been around since the league started and finally after 41 years made it to the playoffs 2nd place E division Good Stuff. Good Stuff played well but Bad Boys won moving them into the finals against 2nd place A division Steel Bad. Bad Boys and Steel Bad had close match but Sean Morehouse hit the winning shot to take home the championship once again.
